It is my privilege to invite you all to the 6th Congress of South East European Society of Perinatal Medicine (SEESPM). This time we will meet in beautiful city of Zagreb, from 4th to 6th December 2015.

Our Society promotes the objectives of perinatal medicine providing the best possible care for fetuses and neonates, and this meeting will offer an exchange of expertise between obstetricians, neonatologists, pediatricians, as well as all other medical specialists who deal with problems of fetuses and neonates.

All of us from Slovenia on the west through Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Serbia, F.Y.R.O.M., Albania, Bulgaria, Romania, Moldavia, Cyprus, Montenegro and Greece and Turkey on the east; together with supporting members from all other countries will meet in Croatia in beautiful city of Zagreb together with representatives and leading names of World and European Association of Perinatal Medicine. Major topics of the meeting will be: pre-term labor, the influence of maternal diseases to prenatal outcome and early perinatal mortality and morbidity. In special session "Where the East meets the West" you’ll have a chance to hear reputable speakers from our society as well as former and acting presidents of WCPC and ECPM.

Therefore, book the date and take a part on 6th Congress of South East European Society of Perinatal Medicine. See you in Zagreb, Croatia, from 4th - 6th December 2015. We will do our best to fulfill your expectations.

Ratko Matijević / Congress president
